

Quaff My Bluff

Friday 8th October 2010

After the success of the first, hilarious, Quaff My Bluff competition earlier this year, we have decided to repeat the performance!

Participate in a fun, light-hearted Wine Tasting Competition and enjoy Tapas-style dishes to compliment each wine for only £17.50 per person.

Teams of 4 to 6 people will listen to three wine merchants describe a wine, with a lot of humour involved, and your team must decide who is bluffing and which one is telling the truth!

Why not stay the night after the Quaff My Bluff competition for only £60 for two sharing a room with a full breakfast included. That's not much more than a taxi home!
